Adopt a Plan

A definite plan is the foundation of success in saving.

It doesn't make much difference what the plan of saving is, so long as it's systematic. Some people never spend the dimes they get—they put them in a convenient home savings bank.

Some men shave themselves and drop into the bank the money they would have to pay the barber. Others walk to the office and save the carfare.

You can select any plan which suits you. Regularity in your saving is the essential thing.

One dollar opens an account and starts your savings earning interest. BEGIN NOW.

MONTGOMERY HOSE COMPANY

Makes a Big Success of Thirty-seventh Annual Concert and Ball, Thanksgiving Eve.

The leading musical event of the year in the city, the thirty-seventh annual concert and ball given on Thanksgiving eve in Town hall under the auspices of the Montgomery hose company, No. 2, it proved a great success in every respect and the attendance was unusually large. There were many out of town guests and the beautiful gowning of the ladies were well set off by the handsome decorations of the hall. These were especially arranged for the event by P. D. Donahue.

An excellent concert was rendered from 8 to 10 o'clock by the orchestra of this city. The talented band of musicians played for the time program that followed the grand march which was led by Mayor and Mrs. D. P. Dunn. The mayor has attended this annual event every year since the dance was given and a number of years has led the grand march in which a large number of participants.

Refreshments were served at intermission by a local caterer. The honorary committee comprised Mayor D. P. Dunn, chairman, with Thomas Ashton, who has attended all the annual dances of the company with one or two exceptions: John J. Henry, Alderman D. B. O'Connor, John J. Donahue, Fire Engineer John O'Rourke and Fire Engineer Thomas P. Foley.

Louis J. Flynn, a past foreman of the company, was general director and the floor was in charge of William A. Costello, assisted by Edward J. Grady, William L. Clark, J. Franklin Keon, John J. Foley, James McQuinn and Frank Cunningham. The committee in charge of the arrangements comprised Louis J. Flynn, George A. Grady, James J. Figue, Michael J. English and Michael F. Driscoll.

LAZY HUSBAND JAILED.

John Ladda, who Kicked Wife, Will Work Half a Year at Brooklyn Jail.

John Ladda, whose case was continued from Monday until Wednesday morning because his wife, whom he had kicked in the stomach because she would not give him ten cents so he could go to church last Sunday, was in the hospital, was arraigned before Judge W. A. Arnold in the police court Wednesday morning.

Mrs. Ladda's condition was such as to permit her being in court. She testified she had been the sole support of the family for the past four years. Her nine-year old daughter sustained her testimony.

The judge said: "You are the most worthless individual ever brought before this court. I'll impose a sentence of six months in the county jail."

Ladda shortly after took a ride to Brooklyn to spend Thanksgiving and the remainder of the winter.

WEDDING.

Boucher-Uncles.

John Boucher and Miss Annie Uncles were married Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock in the home of the bride's father, Mr. John Boucher, by Rev. John J. Fleming, in the presence of a number of relatives and friends. James Rowan was best man and Miss Molly Uncles, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. After the church ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's father, Mr. and Mrs. Boucher. A breakfast was served at the home of the bride's father, Mr. and Mrs. Boucher. A breakfast was served at the home of the bride's father, Mr. and Mrs. Boucher.

Mr. and Mrs. Boucher left on the 11:25 Central Vermont train for Montpelier to spend their honeymoon. On their return they will go to house-keeping at 257 Valley street.

The groom is a carpenter employed by E. H. Brindamour.

Accused Under Bonds of $1,000 Furnished by His Mother—Complaint Amended—Hearing Set for December 11.

Wednesday afternoon State Police-man W. E. Jackson took Walter Timmins to South Coventry where at two o'clock he was given a preliminary hearing before Justice of the Peace George H. Andrews on the charge of rape. Attorney William A. King looked out for the town's interests. The accused was represented by Attorney Thomas J. Kelley.

Timmins was arrested Tuesday afternoon while working in a boiler house at the state normal school in this city. By Chief of Police E. H. Richmond and State Police-man W. E. Jackson for an alleged criminal assault upon Lillian Andrews, aged 25, early Sunday night in the rear of the schoolhouse at Flanders.

It is understood that the complaint was amended to assault with intent to commit rape. Attorney Kelley requested a continuance of the case. The request was granted by the court and a second hearing was fixed for a date next Monday.

The accused was released upon a bond of $1,000 furnished by his mother.

CALLS REV. R. G. HARTLEY.

Waterbury Baptist Church Wants Him as Pastor—Expected to Accept.

The Waterbury American of Tuesday called on Rev. R. G. Hartley, pastor of the First Baptist church, who was held last evening in the church parlors by Rev. R. G. Hartley, president, and Charles P. Haight, clerk of the church, acting as secretary. At which meeting it was voted to extend a call to Rev. R. G. Hartley, pastor of the Baptist church, Waterbury, to become pastor of the church here, succeeding Rev. Dr. Lawson, whose resignation was recently accepted.

Rev. Mr. Hartley preached here the Sunday after the holding of the Baptist state convention, and all who heard him were favorably impressed, though he had not been spoken of as a possible pastor of the church. The committee has considered several men, but decided that everything considered, Mr. Hartley was the best man for the position. It could be secured. The report of the committee was accepted and the vote was practically unanimous.

Rev. R. G. Hartley is about 35 years of age, a clergyman, his education being at Bucknell college, Pennsylvania, and at the University of Toronto, and of Union theological seminary, New York, and is a fully educated man. He has held for some three years past, was practically, a pastor, and he was ordained while there. The church under his leadership has made a marked advance, both in membership and influence.

Not only the First Baptist church here, but the South Norwalk Baptist church, also, has extended a call to Mr. Hartley within the past few days. It was said in Willimantic today that he had given no answer to the South Norwalk church yet. It is believed in Willimantic he will accept the Waterbury call.

Mr. Hartley's father, Rev. William Hartley, was pastor of one of the Baptist churches in Yonkers, N. Y., during about a year after his son accepted the pastorate of the church in Willimantic. Young Mr. Hartley is now in Yonkers, N. Y., as his mother and sister are moving to that city from Willimantic.

LUMBERMEN ORGANIZE

To Fight Railroad in the Reduction of Prices on Ties—C. E. Childs of Putnam Elected President—Name Adopted.

Wednesday, about forty lumbermen from eastern Connecticut towns, Rhode Island and Massachusetts, met in session at the Hotel Hooker and effected an organization to fight the reduction of prices on ties, etc., by the railroad companies. The meeting was held in the room of the preliminary one held in Plainfield some weeks ago.

C. E. Childs of Putnam, who was appointed chairman, called the meeting to order at 10:30 o'clock. C. E. Childs of Putnam was clerk. The committee on by-laws reported and their work was thoroughly discussed and then adopted. This practically consumed the time until dinner at 12:30.

Business was resumed at 2 o'clock and an organization effected. The name adopted was the Lumber Manufacturers' association of Southern New England. The election of officers and directors resulted as follows: President, C. E. Childs of Putnam; vice president, C. M. Elmer of Putnam; secretary, C. A. Tillinghast of Danielson. Directors for three years, P. A. Frisvold of Putnam, C. E. Childs of Putnam, C. A. Tillinghast of Danielson, C. E. Childs of Putnam, C. A. Tillinghast of Danielson, C. E. Childs of Putnam, C. A. Tillinghast of Danielson.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Keach left on Wednesday afternoon to spend Thanksgiving at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Keach, of Waterbury.

Mrs. James McCallum and children of Monticello, Ind., formerly of this city, are visiting at the home of their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. George Eldridge of Colchester.

Train Announcer Matthew Geary of the union station in New York, after attending the wedding of a nephew, Timothy Murphy, of the freight department is substituting for Mr. Geary.

Middletown.—The members of the Swedish Congregational church of this city have decided to hold a series of suppers or fairs. Every male member of the church has promised to contribute a dollar's worth of raising funds by fairs and suppers.

DANIELSON

Popular Amusement for Thanksgiving

Shower Given Miss Judson. Service, Today at Baptist Church—Falling Off of 79 in Number of School Children.

Robert O. Small, superintendent of schools at Beverly, Mass., and Mrs. Small are spending Thanksgiving with friends in Danielson. Mr. Small was formerly principal of Killingly High school.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Jacobs are entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wardworth and son, Lincoln, of Norwich for the holiday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bailey and John Bailey, all of Southbridge, are spending today with Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Bailey of the West Side.

Mrs. Charles Langlois of Tataville, who came here for a visit, is at the home of friends on the West Side, and has been under the doctor's care.

Mr. and Mrs. William L. Sweet and son and Mrs. Elizabeth Sweet of Providence are Thanksgiving day guests of Representative and Mrs. E. H. Keach.

Non-resident teachers in the high and graded schools of the town, Killingly left Wednesday afternoon to spend the holiday recess at their homes.

Given Jail Sentence.

The fellow who was picked up drunk from a lawn on Main street during the heavy storm of Tuesday evening must have thought the roof was leaking in the town court Wednesday morning he was sentenced to serve 30 days in jail.

Drill Omitted.

There will be no drill this (Thursday) evening for the members of the thirty-seventh annual concert on account of the holiday. Next week for the remainder of the drill season the regular drill night will be Tuesday, instead of Thursday as has been the rule for some time.

Several parties of local men are to spend Thanksgiving in the woods on rabbit hunts. Dogs and ferrets will be used. Hunting the hares is a popular pastime just now, and many of the little animals are being taken each week from a supply that is plentiful.

Others Stung.

It is understood that not all the buyers of the stock of a New York publishing company that has had financial difficulties of late are confined to Plainfield in Windsor county. Killingly people also got in on the investment and are wondering when and how they are going to get out again.

Clerk's Work Completed.

Attorney Sabin Sayles Russell, clerk of the Connecticut house of representatives, has practically completed his work of editing the 2200 pages that are included in the Journal of the House, Session of 1911. The work is now in the printers' hands and will probably be issued and ready for distribution about the middle of the holiday.

Attended Plainfield Play.

A few Danielson people and many from the villages surrounding Plainfield were at the Babcock theater in that place last night going to see Rio Grande, a drama, very acceptably presented by a cast composed principally of Plainfield people. The scene of the play is laid in New Mexico and the structure of the piece allows plenty of action.

Popular Bill at Orpheum.

The Powell Minstrel Maids in a special up to date musical melange made a hit with the holiday eve audience were seen at the Orpheum theater last night. The evening was pronounced one of the best of the attractions that Manager W. S. Brown has presented since opening the new house.

Miss Judson Showered by Friends.

About a dozen of the class of '09, Killingly High school, gathered at the home of Miss Zephia Colvin, Maple street, Tuesday afternoon and gave Miss Judson, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Webster, a shower of china and various other beautiful articles were presented Miss Judson. Refreshments were served and a social hour enjoyed.

Union Service.

There is to be a union service at the Baptist church this (Thanksgiving) morning, following a custom in vogue in Danielson for several years. Rev. Elliott F. Studley, pastor of the Methodist church, will officiate.

A Quiet Holiday Probable.

This holiday in Danielson will follow closely New England tradition as the observance of the day. Aside from the theatrical attractions, there will be nothing to detract from the quiet period of thankfulness that marked the century back, and the day will be given principally to family reunions. Evening trains on Wednesday brought many whose business is elsewhere, but whose homes or dearest relatives are here.

Eleven Goons This Month.

Fred T. Webster, chief of the best known coon hunters in this parish, has taken 11 of the animals during the month. While his record is in Massachusetts, the majority of the animals have been taken on Connecticut territory, being mostly good coon country in this section. The four animals taken last Saturday night by the Webster party that he was out with on the biggest night's haul of the season, now about to close.

Can't Get Tickets.

Local football enthusiasts who would see the Brown-Indian game in Providence today have been disappointed because of their inability to get tickets to what promises to be one of the premier gridiron struggles of the season.

1,103 Children of School Age.

The enumeration by John A. Paine, secretary of the town school committee, of the children of school age 4 to 16 years, in Killingly, shows a total of 1,102, a loss of 179 from the figures of 1,281, shown in 1910, was the total enumeration.

This loss is principally in Danielson, where the population of the town has decreased, the whole number being the result of the closing of the textile part during the past 12 months.

ANGUS PARK PRESIDENT.

Milk or Cream?

Some folks, when not careful, get all the flour in the wheat.

That is ordinary flour.

Other folks, at the same price, get just the heart of the wheat—

Just the daintiest particles—just the cream of the flour.

All because—

Some folks say simply "flour."

And others, in ordering, say "Gold Medal Flour."

Gold Medal Flour is ten times sifted, through ten fine sheets of silk.

Only the flour that comes through—fine, soft and digestible—ever goes into Gold Medal bags.

The quality shows in the perfect mixing and rising—in the flaky pastry—in the golden bloom on the loaf.

You can get that flour always—forever alike—

by stating that you want it. Don't merely say "flour." Say—

No More Cold Hands

PERFECTION

SMOKELESS

OIL HEATER

A woman often does not notice what a cold day it is so long as she is bustling around the house. But when she sits down to her sewing and mending, she soon feels chilly.

It is then she needs a Perfection Smokeless Oil Heater. Its quick, glowing heat warms up a room in next to no time.

That is the beauty of a Perfection Smokeless Oil Heater. It is always ready for use; you can carry it wherever you please; and you light it only when you want it.

The Perfection Oil Heater is smokeless and odorless—a patented automatic device insures that. It is reliable, safe and economical—burns nine hours on one filling. Handsome, too—drums finished either in blue enamel or plain steel, with nickel trimmings.
